

RELY ON EXCELLENCE

Digital efficiency that inspires:

How up2e! saves time and simplifies processes with the EagleBurgmann online shop up2e! GmbH as an innovative company is using experience and know-how to design modern ozone treatment solutions of any size or complexity. Products and services are used for applications in oil and gas, chemical, pharmaceutical, water, and food and beverage sectors. As a dynamic partner in a demanding market environment, up2e! special emphasis on reliability, speed and lean processes.

In order to meet these requirements in the procurement of technical components, up2e! uses digital solutions that create transparency and reduce operational costs – such as the EagleBurgmann online shop.

With the EagleBurgmann online shop, up2e! noticeably optimizes its procurement processes. Today, orders can be placed more quickly, information is available at any time and internal coordination has been significantly reduced.

The most important advantages for up2e!:

- Significant time savings through simple repeat orders and favorites lists
- High planning reliability thanks to transparent delivery information
- Reduced administrative effort, as orders and product information are available centrally

The EagleBurgmann online shop shows how digital solutions facilitate collaboration with customers and create real added value.

„The EagleBurgmann online shop is a real efficiency driver for us. We find the right products immediately and can process orders much faster.“

up2e! – Wolfgang Neuhaus,
Managing Partner at up2e!

„We particularly appreciate the transparency and ease of use. The online shop provides us with optimal support in our day-to-day business and fits perfectly with our digital aspirations.“

up2e! – Simon Keis,
Engineering&Design at up2e!

“The transparency and facilitation offered by the online shop allows us to focus more on the important thing behind the business: the people who make them.”

– Clemens Günther,
Onlineshop Product Owner at EagleBurgmann
